The State and Life Chances Questionnaire

(English translation)

Note:

1. The format for the Chinese version of the questionnaire differs from that of the English version to facilitate presentation and recording answers.
2. Detailed instructions (wording of the specific items and definitions of the concepts, [e.g., "danwei"]) are provided in a separate document ("Instruction Manual") used to train interviewers.
3. Words in italics are instructions for the interviewer.

Interviewer Introduction

Dear friend,

Welcome to the social survey conducted by ... The purpose of this social survey is to study the life experiences of urban residents since 1949. You have been chosen at random for our interview. We are going to ask you some questions about your education, employment, and related experiences. Your name and your work unit will not appear in the questionnaire, and all information about you is confidential. Please answer the following questions as accurately as possible. If you do not want to answer certain questions, please let us know. Thank you very much for your cooperation.

I. Coding of Interview

XVI. Spouse's Income

We want to ask you questions about your income. Please tell us about your average monthly income in the following years, including your basic wage, bonus, and subsidy. If you cannot remember the specific year, please tell us your income in the year you can remember that is closest to the specified year. If you can only remember the annual income, or quarterly income. That's fine, but please let us know. (Income should be reported in Yuan. Indicate month/year/ quarter: 1=month; 2=year; 3=quarter). Please remind the respondent of the historical contexts of these specific years [see Instruction Manual]. Fill in the alternative years on the second line, if the respondent chooses so.)
